Roberto Suarez, Biz Champions

Roberto Suarez founded BizChampions in 2002 with the belief that individuals and businesses could all be Champions in everyday life, no matter if winning or losing. He wanted to support global awakening by training business professionals in a powerful and profound technique called standing meditation, resulting in peace of mind, lack of stress and connection to inner power. He committed to becoming a prosperous coach and trainer in supporting others to realize that separation from one's inner power results in feeling that life does not work. Roberto has experienced more than 10,000 hours in the disciplines and practices of transformation, awareness, meditation and Tai Chi. He created BizChampions and Being Champion from those disciplines.

Individuals and businesses are seeking ways to create change in their life or business culture in these fast-paced and demanding times. As individuals and companies seek to align their values and completely new ways of thinking, BizChampions' model for coaching provides a distinctly positive force and support. BizChampions' strategy begins with bringing the individual's internal reality into alignment so he or she can work or live from abundance rather than survival. The external elements of an individual or company change when each individual changes, which leads to breakthrough results that can be achieved within a short timeframe.

BizChampions' coaches are available to bring breakthrough results in all areas on an ongoing basis. As coaches work together to attain the individual or corporate leadership vision, people are trained in Coaching, The Process and The Principles, which create powerful change.

Once in place, the Being Champion Process will continue to help you or your company to manage long after the team has completed coaching. The tools BizChampions uses to make the Being Champion Process a success are derived from its understanding and experience as a leader in the movement towards actualizing true individual and corporate possibilities.
